Whereas, according to the CDC, more than 41,000 people die by suicide each year in the United States; and

Whereas, suicide is the tenth leading cause of death among adults in the US, and the second leading cause of death among people aged 10-24; and

Whereas, Boone County is not exempt from this devastating trend, with 105 suicides having been completed in Boone County between 2012 and 2015, with the male suicide rate being four times higher than the female rate; and

Whereas, suicidal thoughts can affect anyone, regardless of age, gender, race, orientation, income level, religion, or background; and

Whereas, regional organizations, like Suicide Prevention Services (SPS) and American Foundation for Suicide Prevention Greater Mid-Missouri, and national organizations, like the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) and the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, provide lifesaving resources for those struggling with mental illness and suicidal thoughts, which are often seen as too taboo to discuss; and

Whereas, every member of our community should understand that throughout life's struggles we all need the occasional reminder that we are all silently fighting our own battles; and

Whereas, September is National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month and is intended to help promote awareness of suicide and mental health issues, identify suicide prevention resources available in our community, and educate our citizens about how to help those around them and how to talk about suicide without increasing the risk of harm; and

Whereas, far too many Boone County citizens die by suicide each year, deaths which may have been preventable.

Therefore, the Boone County Commission does hereby recognize September as National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, by which it identifies suicide prevention as a priority and encourages all Boone County citizens to learn how they can help their loved ones and their community at large.

5. Commission Reports

Commissioner Thompson stated that she went to the Solstice Senior living center for the 100th birthday of Mildred Moreau, who birthday they just celebrated at Commission the other day and it was great. She had a huge crowd there. She read the proclamation and Mrs. Moreau had fun. It turns out that part of her family, the first part that was born here in Boone County, was a Todd, part of the Mary Todd/Lincoln group. It was really neat to see all the people that are related to her that she has had an impact on. She has now lived in Boone County for 100 years. So, we are going to get her to be part of Teresa Sutton's oral history compilation for the bicentennial.

There were no other Commissioner reports.

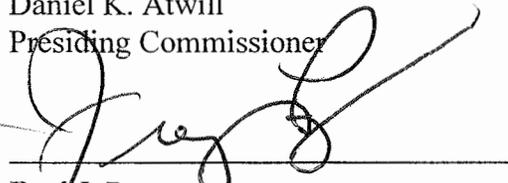

The meeting adjourned at 9:44 a.m.
