

BOONE COUNTY RESOURCE MANAGEMENT CONDITIONAL USE PERMITS

A conditional use is a use allowed in a zoning district after a Conditional Use permit is granted by the County Commission according to Zoning Regulations Section 15 (Administration) of the Boone County Zoning Regulations. Conditional Uses are listed in Zoning Regulations Section 5 (District Use Regulations) of the Boone County Zoning Regulations. This permit requires that an application be submitted to the County Commission through the Department of Resource Management. There is a $225.00 non-refundable fee as well as a mailing fee at the current first-class postage rate per property owner within 1000 feet of the request.

There are two public hearings involved with a request for a Conditional Use Permit. Unless otherwise noted the meetings are held in the County Commission Chambers on the main floor of the Boone County Government Building, 801 E Walnut, Columbia, MO. The first hearing is before the Planning and Zoning Commission (eleven members) and the second hearing is before the County Commission (three members). The Planning Commission forwards a recommendation to the County Commission who makes the final decision to either grant or deny the permit. The date and time of the County Commission hearing will be announced at the Planning and Zoning Commission public hearing. AN APPLICANT OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVE MUST BE PRESENT AT BOTH HEARINGS IN ORDER TO DESCRIBE THEIR REQUEST AND ANSWER QUESTIONS FROM THE COMMISSION.

During the hearing, County Staff will make a staff report and recommendation, the applicant or their representative will present their request to the Commission and answer any questions which may arise. The presentation may include any additional information the applicant wishes to present such as, documentation, speakers, letters, etc. If you wish to present visual aids during the meeting such as video presentations, slide shows or oversized visual displays you must make arrangements with staff no less than 24 hours prior to the meeting.

Any interested party (neighbors, community groups, friends, general public) may also pose questions and/or speak in favor of or in opposition to a request. The interested party may ask questions or express concerns regarding the permit. - All questions, statements and/or opinions should be addressed to the Commission. Letters and written statements are also acceptable and may be entered into the minutes, however written statements do not provide for cross examination and therefore, do not carry as much weight as does a personal appearance.

Any approved conditional use permit must be utilized within one year of approval by the County Commission, unless a longer period of time is approved for initial utilization. Failure to exercise an approved permit within this period of time will automatically invalidate the permit. An invalidated permit can only be renewed by reapplication and approval as outlined above. If a use authorized by a conditional use permit ceases for twelve months, said permit shall become void. - Zoning Regulations Section 15 A (3)

In the event that it appears to the Director that the holder of a conditional use permit is making use of the permit or premises in violation of the permit, or is permitting others to use the permit or premises in violation of the permit, the Director may file a written complaint with the County Commission, which for cause shown, shall have authority to revoke the permit. The Director will send a copy of the complaint to the holder of the permit, by first class mail to their last known address, at least 45 days prior to a scheduled public hearing to consider revocation of a permit. The Director shall prove by a preponderance of the evidence that violation(s) of one or more conditions of the permit has occurred and shall show cause as to why the permit should be revoked. If the County Commission finds that one or more conditions have been violated upon hearing the evidence of the director and the permittee, the Commission may revoke the permit. Failure of the permittee to appear at the County Commission hearing or to present evidence shall not constitute grounds to avoid revocation of the permit. The Director may, in his discretion, dismiss the complaint prior to hearing if he determines that the violation(s) alleged in the complaint has been corrected. - Zoning Regulations Section 15 A (4)

No application for a conditional use permit will be accepted if it is the same or substantially the same as an application submitted within the previous 12 months and which was denied by the County Commission or withdrawn by the applicant. - Zoning Regulations Section 15 A (1)
